NEW WESTERN CAPE LICENSING FEE TARIFFS

16 October 2020

For Immediate Release

As part of the revision of licensing fees, the Department of Community Safety as the custodial department of the Western Cape Liquor Authority (WCLA), has published the 2020 licensing fee amendments in the Provincial Government Gazette. This process includes a public participation period where all relevant parties are granted the opportunity to provide inputs.

The Government Gazette publication includes the proposed new fee tariffs, which is relevant to all liquor license holders in the Western Cape. For the official documents pertaining to the fee increase, kindly visit the WCLA's website at www.wcla.gov.za, alternatively the published Regulations can also be obtained by contacting their offices telephonically at (021) 204 9805 or via email at Liquor.Enquiries@wcla.gov.za

The public participation period commences on Friday 16 October and concludes on Wednesday 28 October. All correspondence in this regard should be directed to Adv. JC Gerber at the Department of Community Safety via the following platforms:

Post: Adv. JC Gerber SC, Department of Community Safety, PO Box 5346, Cape Town 8000
