

LIQUOR LICENSING FEE INCREASES PUBLISHED FOR COMMENT

The Western Cape Government has published a draft amendment to the Western Cape Liquor Regulations in the Provincial Gazette, including proposed amendments to liquor licensing fees. A 30-day period for public comment has now commenced.

Liquor licensing fees are revised annually ahead of the liquor licence renewal period. Any person or organisation wishing to comment must submit comments in writing before or on 16 September 2023 to the Department of Police Oversight and Community Safety (full details below). Following a review of all comments and inputs received, the final amendment to the regulations will be Gazetted, confirming the new licensing fees.
